Bonneville County Sheriff Paul Wilde Announces Grant Award and Implementation of Innovative Biometric Technology System to Protect Children and Seniors in Idaho

- WHO: To be on hand:
- Sheriff Paul Wilde, Bonneville County
  - Sean G. Mullin, president of The Child Project
  - Congressman Simpson's representative
- WHAT: Grant Award Announcement and Demonstration of The Child Project™ and Senior Safety Net™ in the State of Idaho
- WHERE: Bonneville County Sheriff's Office - EOC Room
605 North Capital
Idaho Falls, Idaho 83402
- WHEN: Friday, October 31, 2008 at 2:00 PM
- WHY: The Child Project™ and Senior Safety Net™ are secure nationwide networks and registries that enable law enforcement and social service agencies to enroll, locate and positively identify missing children and adults using iris biometric recognition technology. The technology compares the unique features contained in the iris against a database of individuals who voluntarily enroll throughout the country to determine identity.
