Attempted Kidnapping

On 10-30-2008 at 7:36 pm the Bonneville County Sheriff's Office responded to the area of Avocet and Teton in regards to an attempted kidnapping.

The deputies contacted two female girls ages 14 and 15. The girls told them that they were walking home from school. As they were crossing the footbridge at the end of Western a male subject came out of a small dark colored truck and approached them on the bridge. He grabbed one of the girls and told her to get into the car. The girls started to scream and the male subject let them go and ran to his truck and left.

The females stated that the male subject was tall and skinny with short hair and a deep voice. The vehicle was described as a little dark colored truck.

If anyone has information about this incident please contact the Bonneville County Sheriff's Office at 529-1200.
