SHOP WITH A COP 2009

On Saturday, December 12th, 31 area children will have the chance to make this year's Christmas brighter for themselves and their families. They will be shopping with their new "partners", the men and women of our local law enforcement agencies.

The children will start the day having breakfast, donated and hosted by Texas Roadhouse and the Idaho Falls Civitans. The children will then "run code" to K-Mart. Mr. and Mrs. Santa will meet them there and they will start their shopping. The Idaho Falls Civitans will wrap the presents for them. Each child will receive a bike that has been fixed up by the Bonneville County Sheriff's Office Work Detail and Bill's Bike Shop. This program, which is in its 16th year, relies heavily on donations from civic groups and many generous individuals throughout our community.

We would like to thank the following organizations for their support: K-Mart, the Idaho Falls Civitans, the Idaho Falls Kiwanis, Teton View Senior Housing, Outback Steak House, Texas Roadhouse, IHOP, Meadow Gold, the Bonneville County Work Detail, Bill's Bike Shop, Farr's Candy, citizens of Bonneville County and Sheriff Wilde for allowing the deputies to grow beards as a fundraiser this year.

Thanks for your help with this program. Your efforts to share in our cause are greatly appreciated.
